LEGAL DEFINITION FOR CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE USED BY MASSACHUSETTS CHILD PROTECTION AGENCY (DSS)

“The non-accidental commission of any act by a caretaker* upon a child under age eighteen (18) which causes, or creates a substantial risk of physical or emotional injury, or constitutes a sexual offense under the laws of the Commonwealth or any sexual contact between a caretaker and a person under the care of that individual. This definition is not dependent upon location (i.e., abuse can occur while the child is in an out-of-home or in-home setting).”

GUIDANCE ON REPORTING TO MASSACHUSETTS CHILD PROTECTION AGENCY (DSS) AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

If you are concerned that a child may be the victim of any type of abuse or neglect, please call the Department of Social Services (DSS) immediately. It is not uncommon to feel unsure about whether a situation is abusive or neglectful; if you are in doubt, contact DSS. A qualified professional is available 24 hours a day to address your concerns.

All reports of abuse or neglect received by DSS are processed by appropriately trained, experienced staff. Based on the information received, DSS will determine whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe the reported children have been abused or neglected by their parents or caretakers*. If reports do not meet DSS’s criteria of abuse or neglect, the reports are screened out. Reports may also be screened out if the identified, alleged perpetrators are not caretakers. In those cases, if DSS believes children have been hurt or neglected by individuals, who are not caretakers of the children, DSS can offer services to the families. The families will also be encouraged to call the police or other appropriate authorities (e.g. District Attorney). Additionally, DSS may need to make mandatory or discretionary referrals to the offices of the local District Attorneys.

(Adapted verbatim from the DSS brochure: Child Abuse Huts Us All: Recognizing, Reporting and Preventing Child abuse and Neglect, 2002)

A “caretaker” is any person entrusted with the responsibility for a child’s health or welfare, both in and out of the home, regardless of age. *(Adapted from the DSS brochure: Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting: A Guide for Mandated Reporters, 2000)
